Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Buck Moore was born on January 20, on a ranch near Two Dot Montana; and,

WHEREAS, In World War II he served his country as a B-17 pilot; and,

WHEREAS, He and his wife Bobbie have four children, three daughters and a son; and,

WHEREAS, Buck joined Norwest on October 1, 1952 in Great Falls, Montana, as an Ag Representative. He then held various jobs, including Assistant Cashier, Vice President, Senior Vice President and Director; and,

WHEREAS, In July 1969 he moved to Aberdeen, South Dakota, as President of Norwest Bank -- in January 1976 he transferred to Sioux Falls as President -- and in 1982 he was named Regional President for South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, This nationally respected ag banker has never lost his cowboy image. He is a well respected business person and community leader; and,

WHEREAS, He has served on the following: President of the Greater South Dakota Association; board member of the South Dakota Symphony, McKennan Hospital, the South Dakota Council on Economic Education, and YMCA; past president of the Sioux Falls Area Chamber of Commerce; past director of the South Dakota Investment Council; Minneapolis Grain Exchange; Guthrie Theater in Minneapolis; and Sioux Empire United Way; and,

WHEREAS, Over the years, he has received many awards and honors, including being named Business Citizen of the Year by the Sioux Falls Chamber of Commerce and has been named Boss of the Year by local service organizations; and,

WHEREAS, Charles P. "Buck" Moore is a family man, a business person and a community leader:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 20, 1989, as

CHARLES P. "BUCK" MOORE DAY

in South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Ninth Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE